Ex-ROTC Instructor Gets 12-Month Prison Term

DeKalb Bureau

A former Rockdale County high school ROTC instructor convicted of simple battery against female students was sentenced Monday to 12 months in prison.

Herman R. Jennette, 47, of 340 Clublane Circle Road in Conyers, was also sentenced to 12 months' probation and ordered to pay up to $1,000 each for the counseling of two victims. He was convicted on March 3 of two counts of simple battery but found innocent on eight other charges of sexual assault and simple battery involving five Rockdale County ROTC students.

In imposing the sentence, DeKalb Superior Court Judge James H. Weeks ordered that Jennette cannot be in the presence of females younger than 18 during his sentence and probation. A Rockdale County judge declined to hear the case because he is related to one of the female students.

The ex-Marine was arrested Nov. 11 after students told a school counselor he had fondled them, according to Cheryl Custer, an assistant Rockdale County district attorney.

RE: Herman Jenette

Dear Paul:

This is in response to your inquiry regarding Scouter Herman Jenette. According to reports following his trial on the alleged child molestation, he was not convicted of this charge; however, it is my understanding that he was charged and is to be sentenced for assault and battery.

I will keep you advised should we receive any further information. As you know, he did voluntarily submit his resignation as a member of the Boy Scouts of America.

Sincerely,

Archie R. Crain

Mr. Archie Crain

[REDACTED]

Atlanta, Georgia, 30303

Dear Archie,

As we discussed by phone, I have been the subject of allegations, made by some of my female students. This situation is not related in any way to the Boy Scouts of America. This is a very trying time in my life, personally and for my family. I am sure that this situation will be cleared up in the very near future.

Effective immediately, I resign from, and withdraw from any association with the Boy Scouts of America. I take this step in order to protect the good name of the Organization. Once this issue is resolved in my favor, I shall petition for reinstatement.

[REDACTED] and I very much appreciate your very kind call last evening. We are carrying a heavy burden and friends such as you certainly help at a time such as this.

Yours in Scouting

Herman Jenette Jr.
